Wellsville.

C. H. CANNAHAR, Agent.

A number of Methodist ministers who attended the Columbia conference were thoroughly cleaned out by pickpockets on a Wabash train. It is possible that those ministers came to the conclusion that they had discovered the un-pardonable sin.

Drs. Rambo and Lanter of Martinsburg were calling on some of their Wellsville patients (?) last Sunday. It is said that their pa-tients are troubled with palpitation of the heart, and that Lanier's case Is somewhat serious, requiring his presence twice a week.

Three of Wellsville's most popular young ladies, Misses Lilly Schutz, Maude Hart and Tille Mottz, left herelast Monday morning on the 'commodation for the world's fair. They took with them two large trunks and 4 boxes, which contained 8 days rations consisting of boiled ham, 2 dozen fried chickens, 14 kinds of cake fruits, jellies, pies galore and half bushel of Saratoga chips. The hereafter. girls expect to be absent eight days, and what they fail to see on Gamma, was 65 years old Tuesthe 'Pike' you can bet your life ain't worth worth seeing.

Tim Holtwick, who has been clerking in Monnig's store the past three months has resigned the position and returned to his home near Americus to engage to farm.

Miss Hattie Ward of Americus returned from St. Louis Wednes- ted. day where she had been studying the fall millinery styles.

The Ernest Huenemeyer farm at Starkenburg will be sold on Mon-day, Oct. 24, at trustee's sale at Montgomery City between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Hugo Lensing, proprietor of the boy orchard north of town, received a car load of apple bar- taken before the county court rels this week.
